Preparing Financial Leaders

Opportunity

For more than half a century, INSEAD has been developing ambitious leaders with a unique world perspective and a strong entrepreneurial spirit. Our world-class faculty, close links to the international business community and unique participative teaching style are some of the aspects that have contributed to building our outstanding reputation. INSEAD brings these resources to the Master in Finance, offering you an unprecedented experience in professional development.

The degree provides a greater depth of finance and accounting skills than you would normally experience in an MBA while offering the leadership and management perspective you would not usually find in a traditional finance degree. Our goal is to prepare the next generation of financial leaders that will drive the corporate finance and investment management industries in the future.

The INSEAD Master in Finance is a premium opportunity for finance and investment professionals. Participants will gain:

- An in-depth knowledge of finance, accounting and management

“The INSEAD Master in Finance programme sets itself apart from the rest by combining real world application with classroom theories.

Leading executives and faculty gather in this programme to engage one another, exchange ideas and stay relevant in the dynamic world of finance.”

*Pierre Hillion,
The Picciotto Chaired Professor of Alternative Investments*

- An absolute focus on the financial industry with a rigorous understanding of the key competitive and management issues in this sector
- A programme uniquely tailored to the needs of working professionals, enabling you to apply and practice your studies in the workplace as you learn
- A program leveraging INSEAD’s campuses in Europe and Asia and its international faculty to provide a truly global and entrepreneurial learning experience

Challenge

The INSEAD Master in Finance is a rigorous postgraduate level programme offered in a modular format to allow professionals to study while continuing to work.

The on-campus modules are offered every 4 months over a 20 month period. Of the five modules, four take place on our Asia campus in Singapore and one takes place on our Europe campus in Fontainebleau, France, offering the opportunity to network with INSEAD students and faculty from around the world.

In addition to the 12 weeks on campus, there is significant work to be done between modules, often aimed at applying classroom theory to your practical business challenges, equating to a total of approximately 17 weeks.

Module	Module	Module	Module	Module
1	2	3	4	5
Core Courses	Core Courses	Concentration	Electives	Capstone & Master Project
3 weeks	3 weeks	2 weeks	2 weeks	2 weeks
Singapore	Singapore	Singapore	Fontainebleau	Singapore

The Master in Finance is designed to offer:

- A solid base in postgraduate level Finance and Accounting
- Concentrations in Corporate Finance or Financial Markets
- A broad choice of electives such as Risk Management, Macro-Economics and Finance, Decision Sciences and Investment Banking
- Financial Leadership, Management and Communication courses to help you put theory into action

Success

Your classmates on the INSEAD Master in Finance will be everything you would expect from one of the world's top business schools. Master in Finance participants have a great deal in common with students on INSEAD's world-famous MBA programme. They have the same international mindset and exceptional analytical ability, along with potential for leadership at the highest level and excellent communication skills in English. Above all, they have the same intellectual curiosity and diversity.

The INSEAD Master in Finance programme is designed for professionals with:

- Ideally four to six years of professional experience
- Strong academic backgrounds
- Demonstrated quantitative skills (as evidenced by the GMAT or GRE)
- Fluency in English
- Outstanding letters of recommendation

Welcome to INSEAD

INSEAD is the only business school with three full campuses in different regions of the world: Europe, Asia and the Middle East. All three campuses offer continuous learning with world-class facilities, permanent faculty and staff and the opportunity to interact with participants from around the world.

INSEAD's unique structure is no accident. Founded in 1957 as a business school for the new Europe, internationalisation is in our DNA. As business globalised, so did we.

Today, "The Business School for the World" has 145 permanent faculty representing 36 nationalities teaching and researching across our 3 campuses – which, between them, host over 9,000 Executive Education participants a year in addition to our 1,000 MBA, 250 Global Executive MBA and 70 PhD students. If you embark on the INSEAD Master in Finance, you become part of a single, remarkable worldwide learning community.

See www.insead.edu/aroundtheworld for further information about our different locations.

One Powerful Network

Joining the INSEAD Master in Finance gives you instant access to a truly global network of contacts: 40,000+ business leaders in 160+ countries. Of course, other leading business schools have alumni scattered throughout the world, but we have a critical mass in more locations than any other. In fact, there are 43 countries where we have over 100 alumni.

Our alumni are amazed by the countless advantages of the INSEAD network. To learn more, go to www.insead.edu/Alumni/alumni_network/

"The Master in Finance delivers a unique learning experience that merges practice with rigorous theory and innovative thinking with analytical training. The programme is designed to provide our participants with a broad, holistic view of finance and its overall implications on and interactions with other areas of the firm and markets to enable our graduates to think strategically."
